

The Esusu Renter Marketplace

The Esusu Renters Marketplace is an online resource that provides access to a variety of resources for renters. The directory includes rent relief programs across the United States and information on credit building opportunities and financial education resources. With so many helpful resources all in one place, the Esusu Renters Marketplace is an essential resource for anyone renting a home.

Access all of these resources at esusurent.com/esusu-marketplace

Our flagship rent relief program with Stable Home Fund*, a 501(c)(3) non-profit, provides 0% interest loans to selected applicants who need help covering rent due to financial distress.

Freddie Mac's CreditSmart® program offers free and online financial education that is flexible and customizable.

Renters who need help paying their utility bills can reach out to The Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) for discounts and support.

* Esusu has partnered with Stable Home Fund, a 501(c)(3) public charity organization, to provide rent relief funds to keep renters in their homes as they navigate economic shocks and periods of severe financial distress.

Esusu is engaged in financial relationships and partnerships with FindHelp.org, Freddie Mac Multifamily, and Fannie Mae. Reference to any specific product, process, or service, or the use of any trade, firm or corporation name is for the information and convenience of the public and our clients, and does not constitute endorsement, recommendation, or favoring by Esusu.

Renters can search and connect to financial assistance, food pantries, medical care, and other free or reduced-cost support services through our partnership with FindHelp.org.

Fannie Mae HomeView™ is a free, interactive, and comprehensive online course that helps put homeownership into focus for more first-time homebuyers.

The Federal Communications Commission has an Affordable Connectivity Program that provides eligible low-income renters with access to discounts and credits on their monthly internet bills and laptop purchases.